

Challenges related to mutual trust concerns raised in appeals within the Dublin III procedure

WHAT ARE THE EUAA EXPERT PANELS?

The EUAA Expert Panels are aimed at members of courts and tribunals who wish to deepen their expert knowledge in specific areas of the CEAS covered by the EUAA judicial publications. The panels facilitate the exchange of views, interpretations, recent national case law, best practices on challenging topics and recent developments in the case law of the CJEU and ECtHR.

WHAT IS THE FORMAT?

- Webinar lasting 2 hours.
- Participants ask their questions to the panel when registering.
- Background note with applicable legal framework and indicative list of relevant case law available upon registration.

WHO CAN JOIN?

Members of courts and tribunals from EU Member States and Associated Countries

WHEN?
5 April 2023
(10:00 – 12:00 CET)

WHAT IS THIS SESSION ABOUT?

- Understanding the relevance of the concept of mutual trust in the context of the Dublin system.
- Analysis of the main “obstacles” to Dublin transfers from the standpoint of what respect of mutual trust entails: risk of inhuman treatment, indirect refoulement and pushbacks, procedural guarantees, reception conditions, detention and the respective legal remedies.
- Review of legal remedies against decisions taken within the Dublin III procedure to ensure the respect of CEAS standards and fundamental rights and reflections as to the ensuing actions to be taken by member states following a rebuttal of the mutual trust principle.
