Launch of the HELP course on Cybercrime and Electronic Evidence

Concept paper and Agenda

Date	19 October 2023
Location	Law Society of Ireland , Blackhall Place, Dublin, Ireland
Language	English
Participation	Justice professionals from Ireland and from EU MS

Background

The Council of Europe (CoE) Programme for Human Rights Education for Legal Professionals (HELP)¹ is aimed at supporting the CoE member states in implementing the European human rights standards at the national level, focusing on the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), other key CoE instruments, and since 2015, EU law. This is done by raising the capacities of legal professionals to apply those instruments in their daily work.

The objective of HELP is to provide high quality education on human rights to judges, lawyers and prosecutors throughout Europe. Law enforcement authorities such as police and prison staff are also targeted by HELP. Thanks to HELP courses, legal professionals can better protect human rights on a national level and keep up to date with the ever-evolving standards and case law of the European Court of Human Rights (ECtHR). HELP courses specifically designed for EU countries increasingly incorporate relevant EU laws.

HELP is:

1. the only pan-European Network of national training institutions for judges, prosecutors and lawyers in the 46 CoE member states.
2. an e-learning platform with free on-line courses on human rights.
3. a human rights training methodology for legal professionals.

The HELP in the EU III Project

The joint EU-CoE project 'European Programme for Human Rights Education for Legal Professionals in the European Union' (HELP in the EU III)² is funded by the EU and implemented by the CoE from 1 March 2022 to 31 August 2024. Its overall objective is to enhance EU justice professionals' capacities to effectively and coherently apply European fundamental rights standards at the national level through training, mainly referring to the Council of Europe instruments (the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR), the (revised) European Social Charter (ESC) etc.) and EU framework (EU Charter on Fundamental Rights, EU Law). It also aims to strengthen the HELP Network in the EU, as well as the capacity of the Network members to effectively implement the HELP methodology and courses and contribute to increasing mutual trust and exchanges between EU practitioners.

The HELP course on Cybercrime and Electronic Evidence

Cybercrime and other crimes involving electronic evidence affect the right to private life of hundreds of millions of individuals whose personal data are stolen; attack the dignity and the integrity of individuals; are a threat to the freedom of expression, public security but also democratic stability. An effective criminal justice response is needed in order to protect societies against cybercrime while also protecting individuals' fundamental human rights. The new Council of Europe HELP course will introduce you to the basic concepts related to cybercrime and electronic evidence. In doing so, the course makes an overview of the challenges in investigating cybercrime, as well as the difficulties in collecting and handling of electronic evidence. The Council of Europe Budapest Convention on Cybercrime and its Additional Protocols remain the key source throughout the whole course as it provides tools to deal with the above challenges for the protection of human rights and enforcement of legal order.

The launch event

The activity is organised under the EU-CoE HELP in the EU III Project, in partnership with the Law Society of Ireland. The launch event will be held in Dublin (Ireland). The travel and accommodation of participants will be covered by the Council of Europe (selected participants will be contacted directly by the CoE for their travel arrangements). Its main goal is to introduce participants to the topics of the course and to the HELP platform and the course page on which the group will follow the course with the assistance of their respective tutors. The working language of the launch event and of the tutored course will be English.

The course preparation and implementation

Before the online launch event, participants should create an account on the HELP e-learning platform
