

Course of Communication focused on Law and Legal Terminology in Criminal and Civil Proceedings

May 18, 19, 20, 2020; 1:30pm -4:30pm

CODICE CORSO D20112

Monday

1:30 - 1:50 Technicalities Of Online Teaching and Social interactions (introductions and getting to know each other)
1:50 - 2:30 Fundamental family law vocabulary and fundamental procedural vocabulary
2:30 - 2:45 coffee break
2:45 - 3:30 A case study: Penal Code and Crimes against Family; an analysis of a Canadian child abandonment case from the point of Italian law
3:30 - 3:45 video comprehension session: basics of family law in English terminology
3:45 - 4:15 Right to divorce and ECHR case law
4:15 - 4:30 Language Games

Tuesday

1:30 - 1:50 meeting and greeting people, revision of vocabulary acquired on Monday
1:50 - 2:30 Fundamental procedural vocabulary: parties to the proceedings, appeals, submissions and evidence, de novo application etc
2:30 - 2:45 coffee break
2:45 - 3:30 The case study: The class action case - analysis focusing on English legal terminology related to an interesting cross border class action case with an international element with many procedural questions
3:30 - 4:15 criminal liability of legal person and crimes against humanity: revision of criminal law vocabulary based on a continuation of discussion of a famous case and a short physical exercise
4:15 - 4:30 Revision of the Terminology in interactive activities

Wednesday

1:30 - 1:50 intonation practice and voice games
1:50 - 2:30 the U.K. murder case - video introduction and initial discussion
2:30 - 2:45 coffee break j
2:45 - 3:30 short writing expertise followed by group discussion about the case based on the Italian law
3:30 - 4:15 outcome of the case based on the real life court judgment - language of agreeing and disagreeing, expressing reasoning
4:15 - 4:30 self study tips, where to find sources of good language practice and closing of the seminar

What if

- this is your first online course and you are worried it will be boring or too technically demanding

Do not worry at all - an online interactive video course can be fun.

You will need:

- a WiFi connection
- a smart phone 📱, (not a 📞) a tablet or a PC or a notebook;
- a pen ✍️, a notebook 📓 or a piece of paper 📄
- the handout you will receive before the course for reference and notes only
- a bit of optimism and patience and being happy to learn something and talk
- You will get a link - It's easy - you click on the link and automatically join the course.